

Sunnyslope Update

Cameron Macbeth

Field Biologist

OCWD

8/12/2020

Table of Contents

- Introduction
 - Background
 - Location
- 2019 Recap
 - “46 Fire”
 - Electroshocking
 - Trash Clean-up
- 2020 Update
 - Debris Dam Removal
 - Video Survey
 - Substrate Data Survey
 - Postponed activities

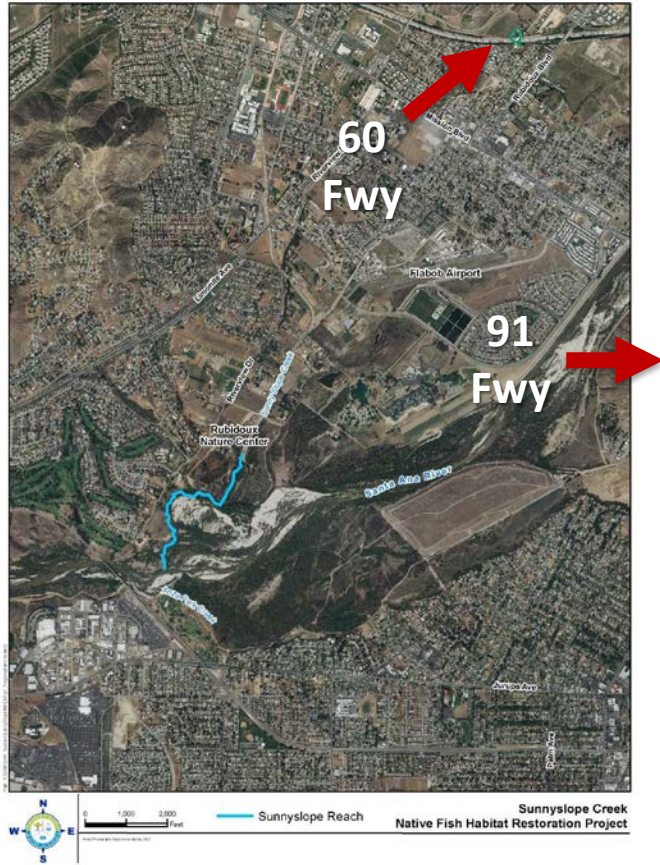

Background

- OCWD and SAWA joint project since 2010
- Objective: Restore and maintain habitat for Arroyo Chub and Santa Ana Sucker
 - Debris Dam Removal
 - Non-native aquatic species removal
 - Non-native vegetation removal

Location

“46 Fire”

- Occurred on October 31st
- Caused by vehicle driven into dry grass near Rancho Jurupa Park
- Burned ~325 Ac.
 - (Including the San Louis Robidoux Nature Center)

Electroshocking

- Conducted August 2019
 - Native Species
 - 94 Arroyo Chub
 - No Sucker
 - Non-natives
 - 203 Green Sunfish
 - 30 Yellow Bullhead
 - 8 Largemouth Bass
 - 13 Bullfrog
 - 1,369 Fathead Minnow

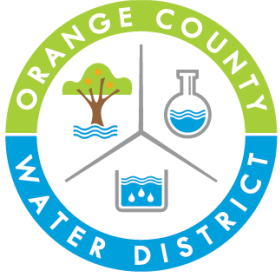

Bonus: Juvenile
Southwestern Pond Turtle

Trash Clean-up

- Took place on December 12th
- Crew of 10
 - OCWD, SAWA, MSHCP
- 34 bags of trash
- Plus a stroller and a mattress

2020 Activities

Removal of Debris Dams

Before...

Debris removal effort took place on April 2nd.

...After

Several blockages removed, but fewer in number and smaller in size compared to previous year.

Planned Activities

- Substrate Data Collection
 - Scheduled for end of August
- Postponed Activities:
 - Electroshocking Survey/Non-native Removal
 - Debris dam removal
 - Trash clean-up

2019 Electroshocking effort

Questions?

